2.2 Program. The Program is a proprietary, annual marketing program owned and administered by the Organizer which is open, subject to these Rules, to new Products offered for sale and sold in the United States and the District of Columbia ("USA").

2.3 Products. You may submit Products of the type typically sold and generally available in supermarkets, grocers, pharmacies, Quick Service Restaurants, and similar retail stores, including but not limited to foods, snacks, beverages, home care, personal care, health and beauty and durable goods which are first offered for sale and sold by or on behalf of You to consumers in the USA after January 1, 2023 ("Products"). Products should demonstrate innovations in design, function, packaging, ingredients or marketing.

2.4 Categories. The Organizer, in conjunction with Kantar and depending upon the Applications received, will classify Products into categories within general areas such as: foods, snacks, beverages, home care, personal care, health and beauty, durable goods each of which will have a minimum of 2 and a maximum of 6 brands. The Organizer reserves the right to change, sub-categorize, add or withdraw any of the categories, depending on the Applications received, and to assign Products to the category it deems appropriate. Categories are determined on the basis of several factors, including commonality of product type and commonality of consumers who purchase products of that type. If the Organizer, in conjunction with Kantar, determines that a Product does not fall within any of the designated categories, the Product will automatically be disqualified from the Program.

2.5 Multiple Entries. You may enter Products in different categories. If the Products are substantially similar, You may enter only one Product in any category in any Program Year. However, if the Products are different in some significant manner, You may enter more than one Product of the same brand in the same category. The Organizer has the discretion to (a) accept a Product into the Program or into any particular category, (b) assign Products to categories, and (c) determine if Products submitted are sufficiently different to warrant multiple entries in a category.

Article 3

3.1 Application. Obtain an Application at productoftheyearusa.com, and submit your completed Application and all support materials including Product samples by November 30, 2024 to the Organizer at Fulfillment Plus, Inc. 889 Waverly Avenue Holtsville NY 11742. You represent and warrant that all information provided by You as part of or in support of Your Application is legally permissible for use in advertising in the USA, and is true, accurate and complete in all respects and is in no way misleading or deceptive. Upon request, You will provide evidence to verify any claims contained in such information. Late submissions will not be considered. Organizer is not obligated to acknowledge receipt of submissions and may reject, in its discretion, any submission not in compliance with these Rules. Applications submitted become the property of the Organizer.

3.2 Full Commitment. By submitting a completed Application, You agree to be bound by these Rules, and to participate in the Program, and pay any fees that become due under Sections 5.2 and 5.3, and not to withdraw from the Program.

3.3 Confidential Information. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.5 and 6.3 or as may be required by law, the Organizer will treat all information and documents submitted as confidential and will not disclose or publish same without Your consent, except as required by law.

3.4 Selection. The selection of the "Voted – Product of the Year" Product for each category will be done in two steps as follows:

3.4.1 Selection of Finalists. The Organizer will select a panel of trade & consumer press, independent retail, design, manufacturing and advertising representatives to review the entries received and, based upon the innovative character of a Product in design, function, packaging or marketing, select no fewer than two nor more than six Products as finalists in each category ("Finalists"). The Organizer reserves the right to accept entries to consider as Finalists after the review of the panel of trade & consumer press, independent retail, design, manufacturing and advertising representatives, at its discretion.

3.4.2 Consumer Vote. The Product selected the "Voted – Product of the Year" Product in each category will be determined from among the Finalists in each category by the vote of a panel of consumers administered by the Organizer and Kantar in accordance with industry standards. The consumer panel will consist of not less than 40,000 consumers. Product ratings for each category as to the extent of innovation will be based on a vote by the entire panel of consumers and a vote by those consumers that have purchased one or more of the Products. From the total votes cast, the Organizer will determine the "Voted – Product of the Year" Product in each category using a proprietary formula which incorporates both sets of votes.

3.5 Use of Finalist/Winner's Products in Advertising and Promotion. If Your product is selected a finalist or voted a winner, You authorize the Organizer to use and distribute Your product to advertise and promote the Voted - Product of the Year promotion in any medium or manner worldwide alone or in connection with the Trademarks without compensation. For purposes hereof, the term "use" includes but is not limited to any reproduction, photograph, illustration, film, video, digital reproduction or other depiction of Your product and its label, packaging and trademark, and the term "distribute" includes but is not limited to any "giveaway" of Your product whether to bloggers, media entrants or otherwise.

3.6 Selection Context. If Your product is selected as a Finalist, it means that it was selected as such from among those products within its designated category that participated in the Program and were not disqualified, and such selection does not mean that the product is a Finalist relative to other products within that category that may be generally available in the market place but that were not participants in the Program. Similarly, if Your product is "Voted - Product of the Year", it means that it was selected as such among the other products within its designated category selected as Finalists and not disqualified, and such selection does not mean that the product is a "Voted-Product of the Year" product relative to other products within that category that may be generally available in the market place but that were not participants in the Program.

3.7 Disqualification. The Organizer may (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies) disqualify any Product at any time where:

- 3.7.1 The Organizer considers that the Product does not meet the criteria in Article 2;
- 3.7.2 The Organizer considers that You have breached the second or third sentences of Section 3.1.
- 3.7.3 You do not make any payment due under these Rules;
- 3.7.4 There are bona fide safety or public health concerns regarding the Product; or
- 3.7.5 The Organizer has reasonable grounds for considering that the continued participation in the Program of the Product would damage the reputation and goodwill of the Program or the Trademark and if the disqualified Product is a Finalist or Voted - Product of the Year, all fees due under Sections 5.2 and 5.3 will remain due and payable regardless of its disqualification and no refund of fees will be made.

Article 4

4.1 Organizer's Rights in the Trademarks. You acknowledge that the Trademarks are the exclusive trademarks of the Organizer or its licensors. You agree not to apply for or obtain registration of the Trademarks for any goods or services in any jurisdiction, nor use the Trademarks or any name or mark confusingly similar to the Trademarks as a company, business, trade or brand name in any jurisdiction.

4.2 Winning Product Trademarks License. Subject to making the payments set out in Article 5, if Your Product is selected "Voted – Product of the Year" in a particular category, You will be granted a limited, revocable, non-transferable, non-assignable license to use the Trademarks only in the United States ("License") subject to the following rules and the Guidelines issued by the Organizer for the use of the Trademarks, which License, however, does not relieve You from complying with applicable laws and regulations:

4.2.1 The term of the License ("License Period") begins on February 6, 2025 ("LicenseStart Date") and ends on February 1, 2027 ("License End Date").

4.2.2 You must obtain the Organizer's prior written approval for each use of the Trademarks in any advertising or marketing activity or for any commercial purpose, and comply at all times with the directions of the Organizer relating to such use. The Trademarks may only be used in the form and manner approved in advance, in each instance, in writing by the Organizer. The Organizer reserves the right to withhold such approval.

4.2.3 You may use the Trademarks only on or in relation to a winning Product and that Product alone. Without the prior written approval of the Organizer in each instance obtained, You may not use the Trademarks on packaging or advertising which includes any other products.

4.2.4 You may only use the Trademarks in advertising or marketing activities directed primarily to the USA audience and on Products or their packaging intended for sale within the USA. You are solely responsible that your advertising or marketing activities are in compliance with applicable USA laws and regulations. You agree to indemnify the Organizer and hold the Organizer harmless from any claims, losses and damages suffered or incurred by the Organizer arising from Your advertising or marketing activities not being in compliance with applicable USA laws and regulations.

4.2.5 The Trademarks may only be used in relation to a winning Product in the same form and composition as the Product described in, and submitted with, the Application.

4.2.6 Every use of the Trademarks will be accompanied by a reference to the Program Year and category which the Product won. Specifically, every use of the Trademarks must specify that the Program Year for Your winning Product was 2025 in order to distinguish it from winning Products for Program Year 2024.

4.2.7 The Organizer may, in its absolute discretion, permit the use of the Trademarks for groupings of some or all of the winning Products for the purpose of promotions directly or indirectly referring to “Products of the Year”.

4.3 Termination of Use. You must monitor use of the Trademarks under the License to ensure that the Trademarks are no longer used on any Product or in any advertising after the License End Date. In particular, You must stop manufacturing or ordering Products and packaging incorporating the Trademarks sufficiently prior to the License End Date so that all Products and packaging incorporating the Trademarks are likely to be sold before the License End Date. After the License End Date, You shall not, in or through any medium, offer to sell, sell, give away or otherwise distribute any Products on or in connection with which the Trademarks appear without the prior written approval of the Organizer in each instance obtained, which approval the Organizer may, in its complete discretion, deny or condition.

4.4 Limitations on Use/Right to Terminate. The Organizer, in its sole discretion, may terminate, immediately and without notice, the License in the event You breach any of the provisions of Article 4 without any obligation to refund any fees paid or payable pursuant to Article 5.

Article 5

Failure to make such payment may, at the discretion of the Organizer, result in all of Your Products being disqualified from the Program and, upon the Organizer giving You written notice, this Agreement being terminated immediately. Your liability to make any payment due hereunder survives the termination of the Agreement. For this payment, You will receive the general aggregated final results of the market research report prepared by Kantar, together with more specific results for the category within which Your Product was selected, subject to applicable privacy laws. The Organizer will deliver these results to You subsequent to Your payment and Kantar’s completion of the market research report.

5.3 You must pay the Organizer the additional sum of $76,000 for each of Your Products selected a “Voted – Product of the Year” Product in a category in consideration for the grant of the License under Section 4.2. Payment is due within sixty days after the invoice date. Upon receipt of this payment, You can use the Trademarks in accordance with Article 4 above. Unless otherwise agreed with the Organizer, You can not make use of the Trademarks prior to payment. Failure to make such payment may, at the discretion of the Organizer, result in all of Your Products being disqualified from the Program and, upon the Organizer giving You written notice, this Agreement being terminated immediately. Your liability to make any payment due hereunder survives the termination of this Agreement.
